APPENDIX ONE - SPECIFICATIONS FOR OLIVE OIL AWARDS

Producers are advised to read the style descriptions below and to enter their oil/s into the appropriate class. If during the judging process an oil is found not to correspond with the class to which it has been assigned, it will be repositioned in the appropriate class.

Mild:

CATEGORY 1. Class 1: Mild – Blends;

Class 2: Mild – Single Varietal

CATEGORY 2. Class 7: Mild – Blends;

Class 8: Mild – Single Varietal

Polyphenol Guide: Polyphenol level less than or equal to 150mg/kilogram.

These oils are characterised by low levels or an absence of bitterness and pungency.

In general these will be similar to oils from warmer olive growing regions. They will usually be seen in New Zealand in warm years and from warmer areas or cultivars where a higher proportion of the olives will have been picked when ripe.

These oils are 'gentle' in character and have ripe fresh fruity aromas and flavours often with underlying stone fruit or tropical fruit characteristics. Some such oils could be expected to have fresh nutty or almond overtones. Oils in this class will be expected to be complex and balanced.

Medium:

CATEGORY 1. Class 3: Medium – Blends;

Class 4: Medium – Single Varietal

CATEGORY 2. Class 9: Medium – Blends;

Class 10: Medium – Single Varietal

Polyphenol Guide: Polyphenol level between 150mg and 300mg/kilogram.

The oils in this class are generally typical of oils from moderate to cool regions and will usually have been processed from a mix of fruit from straw through to blush, purple and black. These oils will display fresh, complex and well rounded moderately intense aromas and flavours. Fruitiness may range from 'green fruity' to ripe fruity. There may be some grassy and/or herbaceous aromas and flavours along with moderate levels of bitterness and pungency that are in balance with the fruit flavours.

Intense

CATEGORY 1. Class 5: Intense – Blends;

Class 6: Intense – Single Varietal

CATEGORY 2. Class 11: Intense – Blends;

Class 12: Intense – Single Varietal

Polyphenol Guide: Polyphenol level greater than or equal to 300mg/kilogram.

Oils entered into this class are generally typical of oils from early-harvested olives, cooler regions or cooler years and may have a higher percentage of fruit that has just begun to ripen. They are full-bodied oils with fresh, complex and intensely fruity aromas and flavours. Fruitiness may be predominantly 'green fruity.' Some grassiness and/or herbaceous aromas and flavours are to be expected along with high and distinct levels of bitterness and pungency that are in balance with the fruit flavours.

Note: Oils submitted in the Single Varietal classes must be accompanied by a grower declaration stating that 90% of the oil is produced from the specified, dominant cultivar.

Flavoured Oils

CATEGORY 3. Class 14: Flavoured Oils – Citrus

This comprise oils flavoured with lemon, orange, blood orange, manadrin, lime, or mixtures of these.

CATEGORY 3. Class 15: Flavoured Oils – Other

This comprises oils flavoured with herbs, garlic, chilli, etc or other mixtures.

The base oil used for flavoured oils must be New Zealand olive oil from the 2015 or 2016 harvest and must be free of defects. For infused oils, the base oil must be an Olives NZ certified extra virgin olive oil.

The flavour of the oil should display an intensity of flavour that is appropriate for accepted culinary use and should be representative of the flavour shown on the entry form and packaging.
